UC8
User
System
The User enters a source point in the search form
The User enters a destination point in the search form
The System searches the database for Paths connecting the two points
A Path is found
The System displays the results on a map, sorting or filtering them based on the computed score
The User views the alternatives and selects one for details
No Path is found
The Systems prompt the User that a Path cannot be found