UC4
User
System
The User clicks on "Start Cycling" button
The System begins recording GPS to track the path
The System analyses data to detect potential obstacles and trip statistics
User is not pedalling
The System pauses data acquisition
User is pedalling
The System resumes data acquisition
User has finished cycling
The User clicks on "End Cycling" button
The System retrieves weather data if available
The System calculates performance statistics
The System stores temporary data and redirects the User to the Trip Validation page