UC5
User
System
The User is on the Trip Validation page after a Trip has ended
The System shows the User a Trip summary and any detected obstacles
The User examines the proposed obstacles
The User confirms the presence of obstacles or rejects false positives
The User adds undetected obstacles manually
The User assigns a status to the Path just completed
The System applies this status to all the road segments in the Path
The User adds a specific status to some Segments
The User wants to save the Trip
The User doesn't want to save the Trip
The System deletes temporary data and nothing is saved
The User wants to make the Path private
The User deletes the Trip
The System launches the aggregation algorithm and updates the public statuses of the segments
The User wants to make the Path public
The User makes the Path public
The User makes the Path private
The System permanently saves the Trip and confirmed data in the database