UC6
User
System
The User chooses the option to make the Path Public.
The System receives the request and updates the Path's visibility attribute
The System launches the aggregation algorithm
The System resolves any data conflicts based on the freshness and validity of the information
The System confirms to the User that the Path has been successfully published