UC7
User
System
The Systems prompt the user to correct or insert missing data
The User manually enters the sequence of road segments
The User assigns a status to the Path
The System applies this status to all selected segments
The User adds a specific status to some Segments
The User sets the Path visibility
The User confirms Path creation
The System validates that a list of roads and statuses has been provided
The information is not valid
The information is valid
The System saves the Path in the database
Path visibility set to private
Path visibility set to public
The Systems update the global map